The Company Pool

Michael Casey

ya want ta be in our pool?
I was gonna axk ya sooner but I didn't know if ya wanted ta I'll show ya how it works ya pay a dollar an a quarter ya givit ta me but you'll haf ta start next week the dollar goes into the home run pool and ya don't haf ta pay the quarter unless if ya want ta we use the Record and we check out the runs column on the sports page not that this paper's always right in fact it usually aint right but this is the paper we use anyway ya gotta use something ta go by the team with the most runs at the end a the week the guy with that team wins the pool the quarter is for the thirteen run pool if ya team gets exactly thirteen runs ya win that that don't happen too often Alfred over there made thirty bucks last week winning that so if ya want ta ya can be in that one too ya see we pick the team from this can every week so one guy don't get stuck with the same shitty team the tricky thing is that the week for the pool starts on Thursday and for the paper it starts on Monday so we just carry it over y'understand this?
